

SOCIETY IN THE CAPITAL

The Song That Lives.
It is easy to sing when the heart is light.
And the singer's mind is free.
From care and sorrow and gloom
Where the sunshine ought to be.
The deepest note of a summer
That lives
When forgotten the lighter strain,
Will be found in the song that the soul Heart gives When achings are the chords of pain.

For the verse that is born in place of a hour
In the world there's a kindly smile
That life is the rose of a summer flower.
And that's a little while 'Tis the song that proclaims, with a trumpet tone,
For the right in the shade or shine
That will live with the minstrel's art
It is known
If the heart thrills with each line.
C. B. O'NEIL.

The golden tinge of autumn is in the air, and with a regretful adieu to the summer, all are hurrying to the winter and its gaieties. Most of the fashionable hostesses have returned from their holidays, and have with them a number of smart young ladies, who have been to the seaside, and with the winter sports and the seasonal fashions, also possibly a few new acquaintances, the season promises to be far from dull.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowker are rejoicing in the arrival of a new daughter.

Maude.
A treat is in store for the lovers of music who will be present at the musical given by the Western Canadian Society of the Daughters of the Empire, at Mrs. Pardee's residence, on Thursday evening. With the best amateur talent in the city a variety of songs is assured. The admission is fifty cents, the proceeds going to the charitable works of this zealous and patriotic society of women.

Last Saturday the interior of Mrs.
Hewson's pretty home recalled the golden autumn days without, in its warmth and cheer, when this popular hostess entertained a number of her friends at the tea hour in honor of her sister, Mrs. Benson. Mrs. Hewson was charming in a soft, white gown, while Mrs. Benson was richly frocked in a blue and white ensemble.
The table, where stately rays waited their bewitching fragrance, was in charge of Mrs. W. Jones and Mrs. V. Harrison, assisted by Misses Jennie Lynch, Eleanor Taylor and Phyllis Brown.

On the same day, Mrs. Gowan underwent at a very enjoyable "at home" in honor of her mother, Mrs. Reid, before the latter's return to the city. The hostess looked very smart in a dainty white frock, cut out on the principle of the "hug," and the guests were elegantly costumed in rich black lace. The drawing-room, with its flowers, with the guests, and the glow here and there while the tea table was the object of many admiring glances, the conversation being of low level of vanities of the subject which a faculty for entertaining winning their better wits. Mrs. W.
W. Gowan and Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Misses Jennie Lynch, Misses Phyllis Brown, Misses Evelyn Murphy, Miss Winifred Perkins and Miss Edwards.

Mrs. Holland Rose was hostess of a large tea on Wednesday, the comforting beverage being more appreciated than usual, owing to the equino-ctial breeze.

Mrs. Rose was pretty in a rich, old rose, satirical gown, with effective garnitures of velvet and gold.
The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Douglas McLean, Mrs. Rose was a handsome role of black velvet, relieved with cream lace, while Mrs. Frank Rose wore a stylish grey silk. Mrs. McLean was a vision of creation of shaded green with rich garnitures and pale yellow chiffon that with white willow points, with peas and autumn foliage were a pleasing touch to the pretty table in charge of Mrs. Havelock and Mrs. Mitchell, the former looking lovely in grey livery satin and style, while Mrs.
Mitchell was in a dainty white and yellow ensemble. Mrs. Mitchell was smartly costumed in cream green, with a Richard Hamilton pattern skirt. Mrs. Hardy was handsome in a grey silk dress, with old lace yoke and a jaunty Lincoln turban. The evening was most pleasant, the guests being Mrs. Lillian Hamilton, Misses Maude and Miss Gardner.

Mrs. Mercer's tea on Thursday was enjoyed by a large number of friends.
The hostess, homelike, warmly received her guests in the handsome refined room, brightly decorated with flowers and autumnal ornaments.
On the table, which was a study of color and design, were a number of the same pretty cake adorning it. Mrs.
Hardy and Mrs. Mitchell were the latter in grey livery satin and style, the former in a dainty white and yellow ensemble. Mrs. Mitchell
was smartly costumed in cream green,
with a Richard Hamilton pattern
skirt. Mrs. Hardy was handsome in a

On Tuesday smart society gathered in the way over to the theatre, where three popular young matrons, who held their first reception of the season on that day. Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs.

Marriott are no exception to the fashionable social at the Capital that it is difficult to realize that their possibilities in this distant away. Many had the pleasure of renewing their acquaintance with Mrs. Benson, and all are pleased to see her near once more.

Mrs. Pardee entertained very delightfully at bridge on Wednesday evening. The hostess received her guests in a soft blue gown, most becoming to her graceful figure, and was assisted in doing the honors of her home by her husband. A good evening was passed, resulting in victory for Mrs. Howard Campbell and Mr.
Percy Hawley.

On Thursday afternoon a delicious hour was spent among Mrs.
Benson's friends, when this gracious hostess had just a few friends in to renew their old acquaintance with the guest of honor, Madame Cauchin.

Miss Rose Marie Gorman entertained at a very smart luncheon on Thursday in honor of her cousin, the Misses Gorman of Ottawa. Miss Gorman received her guests in a soft white gown, most becoming to her fair complexion. Miss Gorman, of Ottawa, was a dainty white dress, while her sister, Adelaide, was in a dainty white muslin with touches of blue. The guests were very pleasant, and the evening most enjoyable.

and go for tea, ask her to pay the bill and later on return your share to her.
Keep this up. Forget your purse too.
Have no change, any device, but see that she has the power to do. If you don't take a firm stand with people like this, they will continue to work you for everything they can get. But let them see you are determined to resist such suggestions and they will fall in line with your attitude.

It is strange how some women, otherwise admirable, will resort to the device of getting pleasure at some one else's expense whenever they can.
The habit of borrowing small sums is falling to return them is another decided drawback in one's friends.

They probably fully intend repaying it some time when they borrow, but their memory is careless, the obligation is barely acknowledged. Yet each effort to the habit of borrowing small sums and not repaying them has often wrecked friendships. The loan of a quarter should be repaid with the same seriousness as a ten dollar bill. Don't borrow either sum if you can avoid it, but if you do, be very sure to return it at the earliest opportunity.

The lack of servants in a Western American town led a number of people there to organize co-operative kitchen. It started with a membership of sixty, which was found best later on to reduce to fifty. A fine old house was rented, affording two large dining-rooms, a reading room and service' quonere. Two hundred of $2.50 apiece was charged for adults, and half price for children. Three meals a day could be had for members $1.50 a week, each and children were taken for half price. The kitchen was permitted at cents each meal. Well-balanced, properly cooked and dainty meals were served and the kitchen has proved a great success, each month paying its way. One man who in the early stages of the experiment dubbed it "The Home of the Help-less" ended by applying for membership for his wife and himself.

The Western Work for September will be composed of this interesting invitation.

One of the interesting places to visit at East Aurora, N. Y., is the studio of Canadian artist, Miss Eleanor Douglas. Some ten years ago on going to Aurora, Miss Douglas found an old, one-story building, containing infact only one room, which was entirely composed of a huge heap of granite, having been used by the separate doors, one for the girls and the other for the boys. Miss Douglas, however, the possibilities of the old place, bought it for a small sum and it is an individual and thoroughly quaint home for a

"THE HIGHLANDS"

(The Land You Hear So Much About)

One of the most striking examples of the way in which Edmonton is advancing in Industrial and Residential ways is evidenced in the continual extension of properties which are placed upon the market and offered to the public at prices compatible with the conditions and developments surrounding them.

"THE HIGHLANDS," situate as it is, on the banks of the scenic Saskatchewan River, with Jasper Avenue intersecting on the crest several feet above the river and bounded on the north by Alberta Avenue, whilst Bellevue is adjoining it on the west, affords both the speculator and investor an ideal opportunity to use his money on a safe and highly remunerative proposition.

The building restriction of $2500 will be a guarantee of high-class residences being erected upon the property thus enhancing its value immensely.

Our Opening Day IS Saturday, Oct. 1st

SPORTING NEWSSECOND MINTO CUP GAME PLAYED TODAY

Nationals and New Westminster Meet Again This Afternoon—Montreal Team Not Taken Seriously—12,000 Saw First Game.

Vancouver, Sept. 24.—The National lacrosse team of Montreal returned to the city yesterday, after spending a couple of days at Harrison Hot Springs. The Minto Cup challengers still have the idea that they can pull out on top in today's game and they propose to be in the best of condition. President Leclerc and a couple of the directors are in Seattle on a visit, but they will join the team tomorrow. The team may be changed slightly for the next game, but it will not be decided till just before the players get out on the field.

The official statement shows that the attendance at the first of the series of Minto Cup games between New Westminster and the Nationals at Queen's Park last Saturday was 12,000, and the paid admissions between 11,000 and 12,000. The cash receipts for the first game, according to the Nationals, were about $4,000. This is slightly under the attendance and paid admissions for the first of the Montreal-New Westminster Minto Cup games.

While the admirers of the Montreal team affect to believe that the Nationals will win today, they are not lacking the Frenchmen with any large amounts of money—not even a double. The score warms getting many taken. The Vancouver twelve, which will play the Nationals a series of exhibition matches at New Westminster during the fall, are down to hard practice and have quite a number of winners, who expect to see them also trim the visiting Montreal twelve.

BASEBALL

SKELLS NEEDS EXPERIENCE. Regina, Sept. 23.—Speaking of Dave Skells, the former Western Canada League twirler, the Detroit News says:

"Dave Skells, who pitched his first game as a Tiger Monday, was the victim of a hard batting line by the Naps. The Tigers managed to win, 9 to 8, because Eddie Summers came to the rescue and pitched remarkable ball for three innings. "Skells has a good curve and lots of speed. He needs a lot of experience, but since he is only 19 he has plenty of time to get that. He should be a good pitcher some day."

CHAMPION TEAMS OF 1910.

The playing season of the Eastern League, American League, Western League and Pacific Coast League has not yet closed, but it is clear that the indications are that the clubs named will win the respective pennants:

Western Canada—Edmonton.
Northwestern—Spokane.
Eastern—Baltimore.
National—Chicago.
American—Philadelphia.
Western—St. Louis.
Association—Minneapolis.
Southern—New Orleans.
Connecticut—Waterbury.
Texas—Dallas.
Washington State—Hayward.
New England—New Bedford.
Wisconsin—Illinois—Appleton.
Southern Michigan—Kalamazoo.
Ohio—Pennsylvania—Cincinnati.
Virginia—Danville.
Three—Springfield.
New York State—Watkinsburg.
Central—South Bend.
Tri-State—Altoona.
Pacific Coast—Portland.

CALGARY GETTING ANXIOUS.

Alberta: The sooner Calgary wakes up to the fact that it must carve out its own baseball destiny the better. It seems pretty certain that there will be no Western Canada baseball activities next season and Winnipeg is already making arrangements to get into another league. Without Winnipeg there can be no league that will go further than this province. The only way out is a league with the Montana towns. Montana towns are considering the proposition in a sort of a way, but are a little afraid that a satisfactory schedule cannot be arranged. Edmonton and Calgary should forget about the pennant for a minute or two and devote some good men to go south and talk up the game somewhat. If we are to have baseball, why not have it now?

BRICKS AND BOUQUETS.

The Spokane team can go ahead with the collection of that $1500 prize they intend to present to the champion of the Pacific Northwest.

Because he has picked the Cubs to defeat the Athletics, Empire Johnson will not doubt be barred from umpiring in the world's series.

Hans Wagner will not play with any all-star aggregation. Honus gets $12,000 a year to play in Pittsburgh with the Pirates he will stick.

Birmingham, in the southern league, hasn't issued a rain check this season, and the entire schedule, has been thrown into confusion.

Detroit favors Chicago over Philadelphia in the world's series.

When Rochester wins the hunting again this season the club will establish an Eastern League record, as no team has yet repeated.

If the Brooklyn team doesn't show some class next season it won't be the fault of President Ebbetts. The loss of the Detroit has drafted 11 players at a cost of $21,500.

Adams, a yearling in the big leagues, turned the trick for the Pirates last year, winning three of the four games that returned them, world's champions, and Cole may develop into the hero of the coming series.

Seaside Capital: H. Whisman, the local ball player who figured so prominently in the pitching box in Western Canada baseball, returned from Spokane yesterday, and with him came Mrs. Whisman.

Mr. Whisman is registered at the Planaqua and will take up their residence in this city. Congratulations to "Wm." N. Nicholson, of the Tetheridge Herald, says none of the Ten Great League clubs but Calgary made money on the season, but that there is no doubt but that there will be league pitchers and holding back his young for the world's series.

Connie Mack is working his hard pitchers and holding back his young for the world's series.

Some of the Giants pick the Athletics to win the world's series, but a majority of McGraw's men can only see the Cubs.

Although keeping a big lead the Chicago Cubs are badly crippled, and unless some of the star performers get back into shape they will be easy picking for Philadelphia in the world's series.

Mr. Bartley, of Jersey City, has the stupendous average of .516. He has smashed one safe blow in 23 trips to the bat.

Slaves of Toronto, leads the league with 11 home runs. Goode, of Baltimore, is second with 6. Combs, of Philadelphia Athletics, held Detroit to 2 hits and a shutout, making his 28th victory for Connie Mack this season in a total of 22 games won by his team.

A large number of minor league players have signed to play in Panama this fall.

Connie Mack did not overlook the draft material with his requests for ball players this season, and he is only signed about eight of them by this route, while he has purchased about 200 others. In fact he will stand out largely next year on this season's changes.

It is believed that the Chicago Cubs have been together longer than any big league club in the business. There has been one change in the club team since 1887, while the Athletics have been changed about. Murphy, Davis and Bender are the only stars remaining since Connie Mack won his last pennant.

Have You Seen The Caloric Fireless Cook Stove?

With its genuine Stellite Radiators it furnishes sufficient stored heat to raise the temperature in the insulated Oven and compartments to over 400 degrees.

It will BAKE, ROAST, STEW, BOIL AND STEAM, cooking everything required for the table. The cooker rarely overdoes its part, even though the contents be forgotten for several hours.

It saves fuel and an overheated kitchen, and it reduces the BUTCHER'S BILL because in using it one does not buy so many Chops or Roasts and Steaks. The cheapest cuts may also be used to advantage.

It will help to solve the great problem of who shall do the cooking as the greater part of the burden will rest upon the FIRELESS COOK STOVE.

Prices $15.00 $25.00 $30.00.

There were fifty people present and addresses were delivered by the mayor of Camrose, Francois Adam, J. P., and James W. Murray, who made a special trip to Camrose to make the presentation.

Smith is an Englishman by birth and joined the force soon after his arrival in Canada, twenty-seven years ago. The greater part of his time in the service has been spent in this district.

The medal of the Imperial Service Order is presented only to members of the constabulary and to civilians. Only one other medal has been presented in Canada during the last year. The presentation of the medal to Smith was ordered by the late King. Mrs. Arthur L. Sifton and daughter are visiting in Winnipeg, the guests of Hon. J. W. Ridd.

SOME WEEKS BEFORE DEPARTURE.

It will be some weeks before the railway commission hand out their report on the request of the C. N. R. railway department to authorize crossing of the C. N. R. at the junction of Edward street and the Henry Place road and at Stephen avenue.

The proposed crossings will first be looked over by the engineer of the commission, Mr. Drury, and he will then report to Ottawa. The order of the commission will be issued following his report.

HE DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE.

Charles Connor, the cook with Sheriff Robertson's party, who mysteriously disappeared from the shack at Cooking Lake on Thursday night, did not commit suicide as was supposed.

After he had left the shack on Thursday evening for the city, Connor disappeared and the search party failed to reveal the trace of his whereabouts. It was assumed that he had jumped into the lake from a boat which had been taken from the meetings and was later found in the water.

W. M. P. made an investigation yesterday but still nothing could be found of the man. Last night, however, Connor turned up in the city having walked into the city. He explained that he had wandered away into the bush, but had no intention of taking his life.
